

What to Bring (including, but not limited to...)

- New and gently used clothing (newborn to Juniors), shoes (must be zip tied together), belts, hats/bonnets, swaddles and sleep sacks (shorts/pants/short-sleeved shirts taken year-round).
 - Spring/Summer Sale: St. Patrick's Day, 4th of July, Easter, tank tops, linen, light sweaters, bathing suits, summer attire.
 - Fall/Winter: Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, sweaters, winter jackets, wool, flannel, fleece, long sleeves, gloves, scarves, boots, toboggins, winter attire.
- Maternity clothes, parenting/pregnancy books & nursing aids.
 - New and gently used maternity clothing, athletic wear, leggings, pajamas/gowns, nursing bras, belly bands, parenting books,
- School uniforms.
- Costumes, dress-up outfits, dance & gymnastics outfits.
- Toys, books, educational books/programs, flash cards, board games, puzzles, dolls, action figures, computer games, gameboys, video games and DVD's (NO VHS TAPES).
- Outdoor play equipment, slides, swing sets, sports equipment, bicycles, tricycles, scooters, riding toys and wagons*
- Left-over, themed party supplies, packaged together, with an index card detailing the contents.
- Cribs, bassinets, crib mattresses and toddler beds*
- Changing tables, highchairs & nursery furniture*
- Car seats, strollers, jogging strollers, travel systems & other baby equipment*
- Crib, bassinet & bed sheets/linens.
- Children's bedroom furniture and décor*
- Book bags, lunch boxes, purses & diaper bags.

*Furniture, car seats, strollers, outdoor play equipment, bikes, riding toys & wagons....
These are all items that sell very well and we almost always sell out.

What NOT to Bring

- For SPRING/SUMMER sale – no wool, flannel, corduroy, Christmas, Halloween, Thanksgiving outfits, coats, ski clothing, boots, mittens/scarves. Light jackets are fine.
- For Fall/Winter sale – no swim suits, linen/Fourth of July, Easter outfits, Tank tops or summer related patterns. Short sleeved shirts and shorts are acceptable year round.
- Check the Consumer Product Safety Commission webpage for recall information.
- We cannot accept recalled items or items that contain lead.
- We cannot accept drop-side cribs.
- No used underwear, socks, tights or bows.
- No shoes in zip block bags or boxes. Shoes must be zip tied together. The tag can be attached by the zip tie or securely taped to the bottom of the shoe.